

Debbie Rosenberg Biography

Debbie Rosenberg is an ACBL Grandmaster, and a 3-time world champion: once in juniors, twice in women's. She has several NABC wins and a victory in the Cavendish teams. With JoAnna Stansby, Debbie won the International Bridge Press Association's award for best bid hand of the year in 2006 and 2010. Recently, Debbie was highlighted in the February 2012 Bridge Bulletin; see pages 15, 18, 29, 62 and 63.

Bidding awards notwithstanding, Debbie especially loves teaching play of the hand. Debbie has 25 years experience teaching bridge players of all levels. Her former students miss her, and offer high praise for her teaching abilities. Her most interesting teaching experience was a trip to Pakistan to help coach their National team.

Debbie and her family recently moved to the Bay Area from New York. Debbie's family includes husband Michael Rosenberg, one of the world's top bridge players, and 14-year old son Kevin, who enjoys bridge as an occasional hobby.